IV. The Supervisory Board

§ 9

Composition and Period of Office

- (1) The Supervisory Board shall consist of three members.
- (2) The Supervisory Board is appointed for the period until the end of the General Meeting which resolves upon the ratification of actions for the fourth financial year after the commencement of the period of office. Here the financial year in which the election takes place is not counted. Re-election is possible.
- (3) Substitute members can be elected for one or several particular Supervisory Board members at the same time as the ordinary Supervisory Board members. Said substitute members shall become members of the Supervisory Board in the order to be laid down at the election, if Supervisory Board members, for whom they were elected as substitute members, resign from the Supervisory Board prior to expiry of the period of office. If a substitute member replaces the resigning member, his/her office shall - if a new election takes place for the resigning member in a subsequent General Meeting after the occurrence of the event of substitution - expire upon termination of said General Meeting; otherwise upon the expiry of the resigning member's remaining period of office.
- (4) If a Supervisory Board member is elected to replace a resigning member, his/her office shall continue to exist for the remainder of the resigning member's period of office. If the new election for a Supervisory Board member, who has left early, has the effect that a succeeding substitute member leaves, the resolution on the supplemental election requires a majority of three-quarters of the votes cast.
- (5) Each member of the Supervisory Board may resign from office by giving one month's notice. The resignation must be made in writing to the Executive Board and the Chairman of the Supervisory Board must be notified. The right to resign from office for good cause shall remain unaffected thereby.

Meetings of the Supervisory Board

- (1) The meetings of the Supervisory Board are called by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board in writing with 14 days' notice. In urgent cases the Chairman can appropriately shorten said notice period and can call the meeting verbally, by telephone, in writing by means of electronic media (e.g. e-mail).
- (2) Notification of the agenda must be given at the same time as the notice. If the agenda has not been properly announced in advance resolutions thereon may be adopted only if no Supervisory Board member objects.

Outside of meetings resolutions can also – upon order of the Chairman of the Supervisory Board – be adopted in writing, by telex/facsimile or telephone or resolutions can be adopted by means of electronic media provided that no member objects to said procedure within a reasonable deadline to be stipulated by the Chairman. A written record of such resolutions shall be drawn up by the Chairman without undue delay and sent to all members. The following provisions shall apply mutatis mutandis to voting outside of meetings.
- (2) A member participates in the adoption of a resolution even if he abstains in the voting.
- (3) Resolutions of the Supervisory Board are adopted by simple majority of the votes cast unless the law compulsorily provides otherwise. An abstention shall thereby not be deemed to be a vote cast. In elections a proportional majority shall suffice. In the event of a parity of votes the vote of the Chairman of the Supervisory Board shall be the casting vote; this also applies in the case of elections.
- (4) The Chairman of the Supervisory Board is authorised to give the declarations of will necessary to implement the resolutions of the Supervisory Board in the name of the Supervisory Board.
- (5) Minutes are to be drawn up of the meetings and resolutions of the Supervisory Board, which must be signed by the Chairman of the meeting or, in the case of votes outside meetings, by the returning officer (leader of the vote).
